

Dear Colleagues,

on behalf of the organizers it is a pleasure to announce „Sportmediterrann“, the 1st sport medical conference taking place in Cyprus, in a wonderful mediterranean ambiance.

The conference takes place from Nov. 5th to Nov. 12th 2017 at the Aldiana Resort Cyprus, and is held under the patronage of the European Federation of Sports Medicine Association (EFSMA) and the Federation of Orthopaedics-Traumatology in Sports Medicine (GOTS).

The scientific program of this conference is focused on the newest results in the field of Internal Medicine and Sports Cardiology, Exercise- and Sports Physiology, Orthopaedics and Traumatology, Nutritional Physiology and Sports Nutrition. In addition, the organizers will also provide lectures concerning “Forensic Medicine” and Complementary Medicine and the interactions of those specialties with the topics of Sports Medicine.

“Sportmediterrann” is providing lectures with the emphasis of “Science-driven Education”. In addition, a lot of sport activities are offered. In the wonderful place of the Aldiana Resort and in the surrounding areas, this conference offers “professional courses” with very well-known former Austrian athletes: Cycling with Andi Goldberger, tennis with Julian Knowle and golf with Markus Brier. Surfing, sailing, cat-sailing courses and a lot of other water sporting activities are also offered by Aldiana Resort.

Fotos: Aldiana GmbH

The program is designed in a way giving every participant enough time for doing private sport activities or supervised professional sport courses, also for swimming and recreation.

Further information and registration is available under www.sportmediterrann.at.

We are looking forward to welcome you all in Cyprus, joining our Conference “sportmediterrann”.

Fotos (v.l.n.r.): Heralic Concepts, Markus Brier, Andreas Goldberger